

7 out of 10 dog attacks occur in the home.

Approximately half of the bite injuries were to the head, face and neck.

0-4
age group is the most at risk.

Most children are bitten by their own dog or one known to them.

We Are Family

As parents it is our responsibility to teach our children how to safely interact with dogs, including behaviours and activities that should be avoided.

